

SATURDAY OCTOBER 8. 1743.

Vienna, September 25.

ER Majesty has resolved to send three Regiments of Foot, and eleven Squadrons of Dragoons, from Bavaria into Italy, under the Command of Lieutenant Field-Marshal Count Brown; which is said to be owing to a Dispatch from Prince Lobkowitz, wherein he represents it as a Thing absolutely necessary to have an Army there of 35,000 Men in the Spring, his Sardinian Majesty having received certain Intelligence, that the French intend to advance against him; and that it has been stipulated by new Treaty, that in case Don Philip can be put into Possession of Parma, Piacenza, Mantua, and Milan, and the King of Naples have his Coast cover'd by a French Fleet, his Catholic Majesty shall resign to him the Duchy of Savoy; and that, in the mean time, his most Christian Majesty shall keep Possession of it, as a Deposit for the Expences he has been, or may be at, in supplying the Spanish Army with Ammunition and Provisions.

Madrid, September 18. The Court will remain here another Month, and then return to the Escorial, as usual. There is not a Day passes, in which his Majesty does not make some Military Promotion, in one or other of his Armies. According to the last Advices from Italy, the Artillery and Ammunition, lately sent on board eight Schooners from Barcelona to Civita Vecchia, were safely arrived there, without meeting any of Admiral Matthews's Squadron in their Way. From the Army in Savoy we learn, that to the 5th the French Auxiliaries were not come up; but that there was no Doubt made of their joining our Forces in a few Days Time. There is not a Day passes without our remitting, more or less, to the Duke of Savoy, in ready Gold; in order, as it is said, to enable him to put his Designs in Execution; which do not seem, for all that, to be a Grain farther advanced than they were last Christmas; tho' within that time, he has had from hence upwards of seven Millions. This Morning we had Advice from Cadix, that the three Register Ships from Buenos Ayres were actually on the Road, and waited only for a fair Wind. These Ships belong to the Commerce, who have paid his Majesty for his Licence to send a 100 Ton of Merchandise to the West Indies, and have likewise given Security for these Ships shall, at their Return, enter into some Port in his Majesty's Dominions, and pay the usual Indulto.

Hamburg, October 4. Some Days ago Prince Frederick Augustus of Holstein, return'd hither from Stralsund, whither he went to accompany his Brother, who is elected Successor to the Crown of Sweden; and who, it is thought, is by this time arrived in that Kingdom. The last News we had from Copenhagen gave us hopes, that the fresh Propositions made by Count Telfin had some Effect; but Letters that arriv'd here yesterday from Glückstadt, seem to destroy all peaceable Expectations; since they inform us, that the Queen's Regiment is lately march'd from thence, for the Camp near Copenhagen, under the Command of Duke Christian Augustus of Holstein Sonderbourg, who is a Major-General in his Danish Majesty's Service, as well as Colonel of that Regiment.

New Brissac, September 25. This Morning the Regiment of Dragoons of Suza, and about Noon all the Household Troops, joined the Army of Marshal Coigny. Prince Charles of Lorraine seems determined to allow us no Rest at present, or during the whole Winter; since he is on the Point of sending a Body of Foot and Dragoons into the Island of Sponeck; which is but three Leagues from our Camp, and separated from the Continent of Alsace by a very narrow Branch of the Rhine. We were in extreme want of Cavalry; for as we are forced to patrol near 50 Miles of the Coast four times in twenty-four Hours, it fatigues our Troops excessively, and has destroy'd such a Number of Horses, that never more were wanting to remount the Cavalry after the most active Campaign.

Thionville, September 24. This Morning we had Intelligence that the Duke de Boufflers, with the Troops under his Command, were arriv'd at Landau; and, at the same time, all that were left here, were order'd to join M. Naulles; as were also another Detachment of five Battalions, and nine Squadrons, under the Command of M. de Berchini. Col. Menzel has already begun to levy heavy Contributions in the Lower Alsace, tho' he is not able to move in Person, but lies at Hombourg.

under Cure for his broken Leg, with 400 Hussars for his Guard; but two of his Lieutenants, with Detachments of 2 or 300 Men, execute his Orders with all the Punctuality imaginable.

Remain the Man of War, and Ship from East-India. Also arrived the Italian Merchant, Capt. George Ribie, from Leghorn, who gives the following Account: 'That Sept. 5. the Crawley Pink, Capt. Naughton, from Chester for Trieste, laden with Lead, was engaged seven Hours between Cape Spartel and Gibraltar (by the several Spanish Privateers who engaged me, when bound up for Leghorn) and was carried into Tariffa. On the 16th of September I parted with the Buchanan, Capt. Hugh Crawford, in Lat. 45. 25: 40 Leagues from Cape Spartel, bound for Virginia. And on the 24th of September, in Lat. of 40: 33: 40 Leagues from Oporto, parted with the Martha, Cooper, from Leghorn for that Port, all well.'

LONDON.

Some private Letters from Dresden say, that his Polish Majesty intends very speedily to send a Person of great Distinction to the Court of Vienna, to offer his Mediation for compromising the Differences between her Hungarian Majesty and the Emperor.

Private Letters from the Army say, that on the 3d Instant, N. S. the Van Guard was within two Days March of the Lines of Lauterbourg; and that the Austrians had rais'd immense Contributions throughout all Alsace.

The same Letters say, that 2000 Peasants had been employ'd to level all the French Lines on the Queich, and that 3000 Horse and Foot were advancing to sustain the Hussars, who have already block'd up the City of Landau; but that it was thought the Siege of that Place could not be undertaken this Season.

The Friends Goodwill, Dolman, from Jamaica, we hear is put into Ireland.

On Thursday died after a short Illness, Mr. Scurfield, a Linen-Draper at the Wheatsheaf near Smithfield Bars. Yesterday the Workmen began to pull down Part of the Exchange Eating House, commonly called Hell, leading from New Palace Yard to the Old, in order to widen the same; pursuant to a Plan for that Purpose.

The same Day was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordships appointed four Lieutenants for the Northumberland Man of War, launch'd Yesterday at Woolwich, and likewise all the Warrant Officers.

We hear, that Application has been lately made by several Players, for a Licence for them to act in the Play-House opposite to the Opera-House in the Hay-Market, but that the same was refused.

Yesterday came on before the Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster, at their General Quarter-Sessions, a Prosecution for a barbarous Assault committed by the Foreman belonging to the King's Womonger in the Strand, upon the Porter, by beating him with a Poker in a cruel Manner. The Fact being fully proved, the Jury found him Guilty, and the Court fin'd him 100 l.

The most Noble ELIXIR,
For Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Hysterick Disease or Vapours in Women.

IN three Days Time demonstrates to every one who takes it, that it is absolutely infallible for the thorough Cure of those perplexing Indispositions, even in the highest and most grievous Degree, where nothing but divine reigns, where Reasoning is interrupted or deprav'd, and the mind is confus'd with terrible Perturbation, Anxiety, and Despondency, even to Distraction, and the Body afflicted with almost insupportable Ailments.

'Tis surprising to see how soon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR, (even a few Doses of it only) entirely cures the vast Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new Train of ideas, instead of those deep and black Thoughts, and pleasant Ideas, that so sensuously dwell upon the soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroy'd all Pleasure ever receiving Comfort again, for it occasions a Flow of the disturb'd Spirits, and causes bright Gleams of Joy to break in upon the Heart, and chase away the whole Load of depressed and melancholy Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients are suddenly reliev'd both in Body and Mind; and now enjoying perfect Health, free and lively Spirits, steady, serene, and gay Thoughts, as much amaz'd that they could be chain'd down to such a state, as before, they were hopeless of ever getting free from them.

In a Word, the Effect of this NOBLE ELIXIR is so suddenly and infallibly curing HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the HYSTERICK DISEASE or VAPOURS in Women, in all their Shapes and Degrees, even after all other Remedies have proved fruitless, is so explicable, as the vast Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmost Satisfaction declare.

It occasions no Manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, the Drops of it are a Dose, and is to be had only at MR. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church yard in the Strand, at 5s. a Bottle, with Directions.
